Main characters' ID cards

Star School

Star School is an ancient building. It has been built over many centuries and is full of surprises. It is enormous and there are some parts of the building that no one ever goes into.

It is situated in the middle of the English countryside.

Generations of actors, dancers, artists and musicians have been trained at Star School.

All ex-students from Star School are very proud of the connection and very loyal to the school.

Star School in one word: Historic!

The other characters

Professor Strictly is called 'the Prof'. He is aged between 40 and 60 but no one really knows. He has silver grey hair – but it might be dyed.

He has been at the school for many years. Before that he was in the theatre. He wants to make Star School very successful. He is always looking for publicity and profit.

The prof in one word:
Entrepreneurial!

Gary is the dance teacher. He is also the man responsible for physical training, sports, etc.

He believes that physical fitness is the most important thing and he wants all the students to work as hard as possible.

He is always heard shouting 'More!' 'Higher!' 'Faster!'

Gary in one word: Workaholic!!

Marguerite will not tell you her age. She likes to describe herself as a 'classic' rather than an 'old' star.

She was once a student at Star School and then she went to Hollywood where she became a star of black and white movies.

She is glamorous and talented.

Marguerite in one word: Starry!

Pete is 18. He first came to Star School to work as a painter but he longed to join with the performers.

He loves music, dancing, acting – and making and fixing things. He is talented and very practical.
